Author Tom Leech speaks on his recent book Fun on the Job: Amusing and true tales from Rosie-the-Riveters to Rocket Scientists at a Major (San Diego) Aerospace Company. Tom shares humorous anecdotes from people employed over 6 decades at this company - some stories going back to Rosies employed at the Consolidated factory at Lindbergh Field.

Drop kids off for a morning of fun! Children will get the chance to become technology detectives and use their imaginations to see just how engineering works.

Enjoy downtown Coronado and grab a coffee while kids learn and have fun from 11:00 am to Noon.

For seventeen years, from the late sixties to the early eighties, the award-winning Coronado High School Marching Band and Drill Team enhanced Coronado parades and other community events, even performing as far as L.A. and beyond. Today we celebrate the CHS Marching Band's history with a panel discussion led by former member, Pastor Eric Smith.
